The 58th issue of the Quarterly Research Journal Noor-e-Marfat is here. The 1st paper of this issue is entitled as "Interfaith Harmony in the Context of Surat-i-Taiba - An Analytical Study". According to this paper, all the prophets (peace be upon them) have taught peace, love and harmony to their nations. This is the reason why there are highly important examples for Muslims to behave tolerantly with followers of other religions in the biography of the Holy Prophet of Islam (a.s). This paper prescribes that the followers of Holy Prophet (a.s) should follow this noble practice and stop any actions that lead to anarchy, violence, narrow-mindedness and religious hatred in the human society.

According to Islam, in addition to spiritual instructions, this is also an obligation of the parents to fulfil the material needs of their children to bring them to perfection. According to Islam, the most important responsibilities of parents for the physical development of children include that they fulfill the material and physical needs of children and take special care of their food, sports, play and growth and teach them modern skills. In order to highlight the importance of this topic, the 2nd paper of this issue is entitled as "Responsibilities of Parents for Physical Upbringing of Children in the Light of Quran and Hadiths".

3rd article of this issue is related to another important religious responsibility of Muslims. In fact, in the Holy book (Quran) and the Sunnah of the Holy Prophet (a.s), Muslims have been given a clear order to love and be kind to the Ahl al-Bayt of the Prophet. Unfortunately, some Muslims show laziness in showing love and obedience to Imams from Ahl al-Bayt (peace be upon them). Muslims, namely Imam Abu Hanifah, Imam Malik, Imam Ahmad bin Hanbal and Imam Shafi'i, are the Imams of the Muslims. The association with the Ahl al-Bayt (peace be upon them) has been highlighted and it has been proved that according to the 4 Imams, the Imams from the Ahl al-Bayt are the ones with the same attributes, who are the most superior in virtues and they deserve to be loved and obeyed.

The topic of the 4th paper is veil. In this paper titled as "The Veil: in the Teachings of Islam and other Religions" the importance of the most effective factor in protecting human chastity has been highlighted. The content of this paper is that Hijab is not just a piece of cloth, it is the reality of a virtuous life. This is the reason why the protection of hijab is not only the order of the religion of Islam, but it is the voice of human conscience and the order of all religions. According to most religions, hijab is a woman's modesty and necessity.

The 5th article under the title "Historiography and Muslims" is a translation of the preface of the book Rasool Jafarian's book "Political History of Islam- The Biography of the Gods' Messenger (PBUH)". In this paper, the historical mindset and historical legacy of Arabs before Islam, the importance of historiography among Muslims after the emergence of Islam, the attention of Muslim rulers on historiography, the effects of historical writings of other nations on Arabs, historiography among Muslims. Various genres, as well as Muslim biographies and biographies and historiography, are examined. This paper provides an excellent method of research in history for those working on Muslim history.

The final paper of this issue, entitled "Tuffa –Tul- Ahwazi Sharah Jamia Tirmizi- An Analytical Review of the Style of Mulana Abdul Rehman Mubarik Puri" deals with the art of bibliography. In this paper, as an expert muhadith, Him Abdul Rahman bin Abdul Rahim Mubarakpuri's distinctions of the demonstrations of Jamiah Tirmidhi have been described.
